

EXHIBIT G

THE PARTIES' RESPECTIVE PROPOSALS CONCERNING THE CHINESE ADDENDUM TO THE DEPOSITION PROTOCOL

SECTION	DEFENDANTS' PROPOSAL	PLAINTIFFS' PROPOSAL
A.1	This Addendum shall govern certain aspects of the depositions of Chinese nationals residing in mainland China who agree to be deposed in this litigation on a voluntary basis.	This Addendum shall govern certain aspects of the depositions of Chinese nationals residing in mainland China.
A.2	This Addendum supplements and incorporates the provisions of the Deposition Protocol, including the COVID-19 Protocols set forth therein, to which it is appended. In the event of a conflict between the Deposition Protocol and this Addendum, the Addendum shall control.	Agreed.
A.3	This Addendum imposes additional terms upon the Parties based upon laws governing the depositions of Chinese nationals residing in mainland China, including but not limited to the Hague Evidence Convention, China's Civil Procedure Law, China laws pertaining to China state secrets and privacy, and in consideration of certain COVID-19-related restrictions and circumstances.	Stricken.
A.4	The Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Federal Rules of Evidence, and the Local Rules of the District of New Jersey shall apply to all depositions of Chinese nationals residing in mainland China who agree to be deposed hereunder unless modified herein by the Hague Evidence Convention, China's Civil Procedure Law, or other applicable China law governing the depositions of Chinese nationals residing in mainland China, including China privacy and state secret laws, and other applicable laws of the jurisdiction in which a deposition pursuant to this Addendum is conducted.	The Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Federal Rules of Evidence, and the Local Rules of the District of New Jersey shall apply to all depositions of Chinese nationals residing in mainland China.

SECTION	DEFENDANTS' PROPOSAL	PLAINTIFFS' PROPOSAL
A.5	Nothing in this Addendum shall be construed as a waiver of any witness' or party's defense of lack of personal jurisdiction.	Nothing in this Addendum shall be construed as a waiver of any witness' or party's defense of lack of personal jurisdiction, to the extent otherwise preserved .
B.6	Plaintiffs may depose Chinese nationals residing in mainland China in mainland China with the approval of a Letter of Request by China's Ministry of Justice; this includes voluntary and involuntary depositions, as well as depositions by videoconference. Plaintiffs have not availed themselves of the Letter of Request process.	Stricken.
B.7	Defendants represent that Chinese nationals traveling from mainland China to another country for a deposition generally require a visa or permit issued by the destination country to enter the destination country; this includes Hong Kong. See Immigration Department of the Government of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region, Arrangements for Entry to the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (HKSAR) from the Mainland China , available at . . .	Agreed.
B.8	Defendants represent that from time-to-time Chinese nationals residing in mainland China may have to abide by certain intra-China travel restrictions imposed by the China government due to COVID-19.	Agreed.
B.9	In addition, Defendants represent that countries have imposed travel restrictions, including entry bans, on Chinese nationals seeking entry from mainland China due to COVID-19. For example, as of [INSERT DATE ADDENDUM IS FILED], Chinese nationals traveling from mainland China to Hong Kong are required to quarantine for at least 14 days upon arrival to Hong Kong	Agreed.

SECTION	DEFENDANTS' PROPOSAL	PLAINTIFFS' PROPOSAL
	and for at least 14 days upon return to mainland China.
C.10	Location: Unless otherwise agreed, a Chinese national residing in mainland China who agrees to be deposed in this action will travel from mainland China to Hong Kong for the deposition, including for a deposition taken via videoconference.	Location: Unless otherwise agreed, a Chinese national residing in mainland China will travel from mainland China to Hong Kong or another agreed location for the deposition, including for a deposition taken via videoconference. The parties shall endeavor to utilize a location that causes the least difficulty due to differences in time zones.
C.11	[Defendants can agree to Plaintiffs' proposed language subject to reaching agreement on a reasonable number of depositions and location.]	Witness Costs: Unless otherwise agreed, Defendants shall bear the cost of the witness' travel between mainland China and Hong Kong or other agreed location , meals, and lodging, as selected by the witness, for the deposition.
C.12	Length: Unless otherwise agreed, a deposition taken pursuant to this Addendum will begin at 9:00 am Hong Kong Standard Time and will last for seven (7) hours, as provided for under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. [Agreement to remove sentence per CMO No. 20] The length of a deposition subject to this Addendum may be increased due to delays caused by technical problems resulting from videoconference connectivity interruptions by the amount of time of such delays, which shall be recorded by the stenographer and videographer. In the event translation services and/or technical problems cause the deposition to extend past 6:00 p.m., the witness or examining counsel may elect to extend the deposition to a second consecutive day.  [See Defendants' submission for potential compromise position]	Start and Stop Times and Length: The parties shall endeavor to conduct depositions subject to this protocol during regular business hours, but recognize that differences in time zones will require flexibility and compromise. This may also involve the need to conduct depositions in shorter blocks of time over the course of more days. The length of a deposition subject to this Addendum may be increased due to delays caused by technical problems, for example resulting from videoconference connectivity interruptions, by the amount of time of such delays, which shall be recorded by the stenographer and videographer. In the event translation services and/or technical problems cause the deposition to extend beyond the time block agreed for a deposition, or to be delayed for a significant length of time , the witness or examining counsel may elect to extend the deposition to a second consecutive day, or

SECTION	DEFENDANTS' PROPOSAL	PLAINTIFFS' PROPOSAL
		another day if the next day is not feasible for continuation.
C.13	Number of Depositions: Given the restrictions and burden of travel between mainland China and Hong Kong, a witness being deposed hereunder may only be deposed once. [ Agreement was reached to strike these sentences. ] It is explicitly understood that no witness agreeing to be deposed hereunder agrees to travel to Hong Kong a second time for additional deposition testimony.	Stricken.
C.14	Notice: After counsel, through consultation in accordance with this Addendum, have made good faith efforts to agree upon a date and mutually convenient location for the deposition(s), the Noticing Party shall serve a Notice or an amended Notice reflecting the agreed upon date(s), location(s), and start time(s) based on Hong Kong Standard Time. The Parties acknowledge that sufficient notice is necessary so the witness and all other attendees, including counsel, translators, and stenographers/videographers may make the necessary travel arrangements and obtain the necessary travel documentation	Notice: After counsel, through consultation in accordance with this Addendum, have made good faith efforts to agree upon a date and mutually convenient location for the deposition(s), the Noticing Party shall serve a Notice or an amended Notice reflecting the agreed upon date(s), location(s), and start time(s) based on Hong Kong Standard Time, or the time zone of the other agreed location. The Parties acknowledge that sufficient notice is necessary so the witness and all other attendees, including counsel, translators, and stenographers/videographers may make the necessary travel arrangements and obtain the necessary travel documentation, as applicable.
C.15	COVID-19 Travel Restrictions: A deposition noticed hereunder will not be conducted until all pertinent travel restrictions, including quarantine requirements, have been lifted, such that a witness will not be required to quarantine upon arrival in Hong Kong or upon return to mainland China, or due to intra-China travel required to travel between mainland China and Hong Kong, and the Parties agree to reschedule a deposition noticed hereunder accordingly. Counsel are	COVID-19 Travel Restrictions: Counsel are expected to cooperate and coordinate the scheduling of depositions hereunder on a good faith basis, taking into account the status of COVID-19 travel restrictions.

SECTION	DEFENDANTS' PROPOSAL	PLAINTIFFS' PROPOSAL
	expected to cooperate and coordinate the scheduling of depositions hereunder on a good faith basis.
C.16	Objections: Nothing in this Addendum shall be construed as prohibiting a Party to object to a Notice, including, but not limited to, objecting on the basis of lack of jurisdiction over the witness, violation of the laws of the country in which the proposed deponent resides, or undue burden upon the witness, his/her counsel, or other Parties, or harassment. Counsel shall also be permitted to state objections and, if necessary, instruct a witness not to answer as required under controlling China law, such as due to state secrets or privacy.	Stricken.
C.17	Attendance: In addition to the individuals set forth in the Deposition Protocol ( see Deposition Protocol, § F.1), a deposition pursuant to this Addendum may be attended by counsel from China for the purpose of ensuring adherence to pertinent China law, such as China state secret and privacy laws.	Stricken.
C.18	Observance of China's Holidays: Depositions pursuant to this Addendum shall not be noticed for dates during periods Chinese are holidays observed, including the Chinese New Year, for which the period of observance is from February 8, 2021 through February 26, 2021.	Nothing proposed.
C.19	Disparagement: Counsel shall refrain from any disparaging or demeaning comments regarding the Chinese government, Chinese heritage, culture, or traditions, and a witness' fluency in English.	Stricken.
C.20	Exhibits: Because exhibits containing foreign languages (i.e., non-English	Exhibits: If exhibits containing foreign languages (i.e., non-English language

SECTION	DEFENDANTS' PROPOSAL	PLAINTIFFS' PROPOSAL
	language content) will need to be translated for depositions subject to this Addendum, no less than 30 days in advance of the deposition, at the deposing party's expense, all exhibits must be sent to counsel for the deponent along with certified human translations of any exhibits containing foreign languages. These certified human translations must be provided in two electronic formats: (1) PDF format and (2) an editable text format (e.g., Microsoft Word or Excel). Counsel representing a deponent may object to any translations and, at the deponent's expense, provide proposed corrections to translations or may provide their own alternative certified human translations no less than 14 days in advance of the deposition. Counsel for the parties must work cooperatively to agree on the translated versions of the exhibits to be provided to the deponent no less than 5 days in advance of the deposition. Counsel for the deponent may raise with the Court any unresolved objections.	content) will be translated for depositions subject to this Addendum, such exhibits, the deposing party may if it chooses to do so, send to counsel for the deponent along with certified human translations of such exhibits containing foreign languages, in advance of the deposition, at least 14 days prior to the deposition. These certified human translations must be provided in two electronic formats: (1) PDF format and (2) an editable text format (e.g., Microsoft Word or Excel). Counsel representing a deponent may object to any translations and, at the deponent's expense, provide proposed corrections to translations or may provide their own alternative certified human translations no less than 7 days in advance of the deposition. Counsel for the parties are expected work cooperatively to agree on the translated versions of the translated exhibits no less than 2 days in advance of the deposition. Counsel for the deponent may raise with the Court any unresolved objections at a later date, as necessary.